

Pitching in for Hope

Pitching in for Hope, founded by Philadelphia Phillies pitcher Brad Lidge and his wife Lindsay, is a national project to support PROJECT C.U.R.E. in its mission of "Delivering Health and Hope to the World." PROJECT C.U.R.E. is a nonprofit, humanitarian relief organization that delivers donated medical supplies, equipment and services to medical professionals and the patients under their care in developing countries. Currently, PROJECT C.U.R.E. is the world's largest organization of its kind, delivering on average two 40-ft. cargo containers of medical relief every week, and having worked in more than 120 countries worldwide since its inception in 1987.
