Clinic Team, the Participant is a representative of Project C.U.R.E., and as such agrees to refrain from any and all illegal activities and behaviors, as well as culturally inappropriate behaviors. In addition, as part of a C.U.R.E. Clinic Team, the Participant must recognize their role as part of a group and must agree to respect the safety and needs of the C.U.R.E. Any items or additional travel arrangements not specifically mentioned will be the sole responsibility of the Participant. Such items include non-scheduled sightseeing or side trips, transport to and from Participant’s home to airport, souvenirs, unscheduled meals and beverages, flight and accommodation upgrades, etc.
All funds received by Project C.U.R.E. are recognized as a donation. A contribution receipt is sent to the donor for tax purposes. Donations receipted in this manner are nonrefundable. In the unlikely event that a trip is cancelled or postponed, or if your travel plans change, the funds can be applied toward another Clinic trip within one year of the original trip date. If you choose not to participate in a later Clinic trip, Project C.U.R.E. reserves the right to allocate the funds to support the Clinic program.

PAYMENT SCHEDULE:

- 60 days prior to departure: All outstanding program costs must be paid in full.

TAX DEDUCTION
Because each clinic trip furthers the mission and vision of Project C.U.R.E., the cost of each trip can be supported by tax deductible donations. Donations from the participants as well as the friends of the participants are receipted by Project C.U.R.E. As stated earlier, funds cannot be refunded to maintain the integrity of the donation. However, should a trip be cancelled, the available funds can be transferred to a future clinic trip within one year from the original trip date or directed towards general support of the organization. As suggested with all tax donations, please consult your tax advisor should you have further questions.

RESTRICTED DONATIONS ON PARTICIPANT’S BEHALF
If any organization or individual makes donations to Project C.U.R.E. for the express purpose of paying for a Participant’s deposit and trip costs for a C.U.R.E. Clinic, these donations are non-refundable, even if they exceed the total program costs. If the sponsored Participant does not commence or complete the C.U.R.E. Clinic trip for any reason, any and all unused donations will be contributed to a scholarship fund for future Participants.

ELIGIBILITY
Project C.U.R.E. reserves the right to deny an individual a spot on the team at any time prior to departure. Since Project C.U.R.E. incurs administrative costs prior to the departure date, the $500 deposit is non-refundable. Project C.U.R.E. is not liable for any other refund including interest, liability or cancellation costs of any kind.

CONDUCT
By joining a C.U.R.E. Clinic Team, the Participant agrees to abide by the rules and regulations established by Project C.U.R.E.
